

ASIA-PACIFIC PARLIAMENTARY FORUM (APPF)

27TH ANNUAL MEETING

Draft Resolution Sponsored by: Japan

ECONOMY AND TRADE

The 27th Annual Meeting of the Asia Pacific Parliamentary Forum;

Noting the Resolution on Promoting Economic Growth and Free Trade which was adopted in the 26th Annual Meeting of the Asia-Pacific Parliamentary Forum in January 2018, the outcomes of the 26th APEC Economic Leaders' Meeting in November 2018, G7 Charlevoix Summit in June 2018 and the G20 Buenos Aires Summit in 2018;

Affirming that Global growth remains moderate and below potential, while risks of weak growth persist;

Reconfirming that our priority task is Global growth, taking into account country-specific circumstances, we commit to strengthening our economic policy responses in a cooperative manner and to employing a more forceful and balanced policy mix, in order to swiftly achieve a strong, sustainable and balanced growth pattern;

Confirming some protectionist measures in trade and investment can negatively influence the world economy, at a time of heightened tensions and significant downside risks for the global economy;

Welcoming each country's commitment toward realizing stability of growth, employment and financial markets in international meetings such as the APEC Economic Leaders Meeting, the G7 Charlevoix Summit and the G20 Buenos Aires Summit;

Recognizing that the ultimate end of economic development must be the improved well-being of all people and the need to promote sustainable development and overcome problems such as poverty, exclusion, social inequality, food security and environmental pollution;

Recognizing the need for a people-centered approach to international development; and

Supportive of recent reform efforts in the international financial institutions;

RESOLVES TO:

1. Urge the Parliaments of the APPF Member States, to the extent of their legislative powers, to carry out an ongoing assessment of international trade instruments with a view to promote equality of opportunities within and between Member States;
2. Call upon the APPF Member States countries to continue to implement effective fiscal and financial policies in order to respond to downside risks and ensure the stability of economies and employment;
3. Call upon the APPF Member States concerned to hasten the effective implementation of the commitments and steadily implement the growth strategy and investment actions, and other structural reforms as outlined in the G20 Hamburg Action Plan to achieve an additional 2% global growth by 2018;
4. Encourage the Parliaments of the region to promote the exchange of practices and experiences in matters of cooperation and sustainable development, focused on strengthening the different national legislation in these fields;
5. Confirm that the APPF Member States should exchange views on the occasion of the annual meetings of the APPF aiming at policy co-ordination in the region, and continue to oversee policy in each country in order to correct imbalances in economies and monetary and financial markets, and thus, ensure their soundness;
6. Encourage the APPF Member States to commit themselves to the fight against negative protectionism measures including all unfair trade practices under the auspice of the WTO in order to facilitate economic growth through free trade and investment;
7. Reaffirm the commitment made in the Bogor Declaration which was adopted by the APEC Leaders in 1994 to achieving the long-term goal of free and open trade and investment in the Asia-Pacific region, recognize significant progress toward achieving the goal, and hope for the full achievement of the goal by all APEC economies by 2020;
8. Call upon all the economies within APEC to continue advancing the process toward eventual realization of the Free Trade Area of the Asia-Pacific (FTAAP), as a comprehensive and high-quality free trade agreement by building on ongoing regional undertakings, including the Comprehensive and Progressive Agreement for Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP11) entering into force at the end of 2018 in line with the APEC Economic Leaders' Declaration in November 2016 as a means not only to further promote regional economic integration in the Asia-Pacific region, but also to complement and to strengthen the multilateral trading system based on the WTO in a transparent and globally beneficial way;
9. Reaffirm the commitment to achieve a modern, comprehensive, high quality and mutually beneficial Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP) based on the recent joint statement issued by the leaders of RCEP Participating Countries;

10. Reaffirm the importance of realizing a Free Trade Agreement (FTA) among Japan, China and the Republic of Korea (ROK), from the same point of view, as well as recognizing the importance of a new discussion among governments on a possible framework of a wide economic partnership in Northeast Asia, including Russia;
11. Emphasize that efforts toward the realization of trade liberalization according to national regulations and economic integration ought to be made while recognizing the need to facilitate such activities as improvement of trade rules related to intellectual property rights and investment, implementation of good practices of regulation, food security and environmental protection;
12. Foster a democratic knowledge based economy that provides opportunities for technical and scientific capability construction within an environment that favors innovation, regional connectivity and respect towards intellectual property rights, through collaboration among government and academia;
13. Encourage the APPF Member States to foster the participation of small and medium enterprises, and social and solidarity economic organizations, in regional markets and invest in human capital development; and
14. Encourage businesses to utilize bilateral and regional trade agreements and encourage the APPF Member States to explain the benefits and opportunities they provide through domestic outreach programs.